

Welcome to Stockholm - the capital of Scandinavia 12-14 jun 2020

Built on 14 islands around one of Europe’s largest and best-preserved mediaeval city centers, the Swedish capital is superbly positioned, with stunning and varied scenery in every direction. Stockholm offers a wealth of museums, theatres, attractions and events, whether your interest lies in history, art, opera, modern dance, traditional handicraft, contemporary design and much more. With the world’s first national park within a city limits and an amazing archipelago made up of 24.000 islands, Stockholm, the first ever European Green capital is a jewel worth visiting any time of the year!
